

Overview of invited speakers

	Name	Country of origin	Confirmed / tentative*
	International speakers
1	Jane Doe	Canada	Confirmed
2	...		Tentative
3
	National speakers
1	John Doe	Egypt	Tentative
2	...
3

Please note: all speakers listed here must have been invited already. 'Tentative' can be used for those where attendance has not been finally confirmed yet.*

Biographies

Please make sure to include a short summary (max 100 words) of the speaker's

- Current position
- Recent (research) work
- Academic background

These can be presented as a short paragraph or in bullet points

Examples:

Jane Doe

Dr. Jane Doe is an expert in [X] with over [X] years of clinical and research experience. Currently serving as [Current Position] at [Institution/Organization], Dr. Jane Doe has held leadership roles in both academic and hospital-based transfusion services. Her recent work focuses on blood safety, immunohematology, and the optimization of transfusion practices, with numerous contributions to national guidelines and clinical protocols. Dr. Jane Doe is also actively involved in education and mentoring, and has presented widely at international conferences. Her ongoing research includes advancements in pathogen reduction technologies and the management of transfusion reactions.

John Doe

- Leading specialist in [X] with extensive experience in clinical practice and blood service management
- Current position: Senior Consultant at [Institution Name]

- Daily responsibilities: oversee transfusion protocols and quality improvement initiatives
- Areas of expertise: patient blood management, hemovigilance, and transfusion safety.
- Other professional or extracurricular activities: contributor to national policy discussions and invited speaker at international symposia.