

Duties of ISBT President Elect

Introduction

The President Elect is a member of the ISBT Board and ISBT Executive committee for two years prior to assuming the position of President of the Society. The two years as a member of the Board and Executive committee prepares the President Elect for the role and duties of the President's position. Nominees for President Elect should be active within ISBT and have a good understanding of the Society's governance structure and the Society's activities.

The Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is appointed by the General Meeting and consists of the President, two Vice Presidents, the Secretary General, the Treasurer, the President Elect, the Past President and nine regional Board members elected from the six WHO regions with two members for Europe, the Americas and the Western Pacific.

The Board of Directors:-

- Is entrusted with the management of the Society (Statutes Article 12.1).
- Ensures that the Society complies with its governing Statutes and By Laws (Statutes Article 12.4).
- Approves income other than membership subscription fees (Statutes Article 4b).
- Appoints Honorary members (Statutes Article 5b) and Affiliate members (Statutes Article 5c).
- Gives notice of termination in the event that a member has ceased to fulfil the requirements for membership laid down in the Statutes, in the event that the member has not observed their obligations towards the Society and in the event that the Society cannot reasonably be expected to allow the membership to continue (Statutes Article 7.5).
- Expels members if they act contrary to the Statutes, the rules or resolutions of the Society or prejudice the Society in an unreasonable manner (Statutes Article 7.6).
- Convenes extraordinary General Assemblies (Statutes Article 8.2 and 9.4).
- Appoints permanent committees, ad hoc committees and working parties and identifies members to undertake specific activities to further the Societies aims as necessary (By-laws Article 6.1).
- May delegate some or all of its responsibilities to an Executive committee (Statutes Article 14.1).
- Must keep accounting records of the finances of the Society, produce an annual report on the activities of the Society, and keep the books, documents, and other databases in such a manner that the rights and obligations of the Society may be recognised at all times (Statutes Article 20.2).
- Must publish its annual report on the situation of the Society and the policy pursued (Statutes Article 20.3).
